

To the Teacher

Our Illustration Workshop has been designed to help students think about the English they are learning and how to creatively express their understanding of that language. The worksheets can be both used to support our English Workshop or independently of it.

Printing

The worksheets work best - especially for younger students or if you want a wall display of your students' work – if you enlarge them to A3 size.